

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

IN RE:      REQUEST FOR RELIEF IN LIGHT OF Johnson v. United States, __ U.S. __, 135 S.Ct. 2551 (June 26, 2015), WHICH WAS MADE RETROACTIVE BY THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT IN Welch v. United States, __ U.S. __, No. 15-6418 (April 18, 2016)

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act, Title 18, U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(1) and (c), and the discretion of the Court, the Office of the Federal Public Defender for the Middle and Western Districts of Louisiana is hereby appointed to represent any defendant who was previously determined to have been entitled to appointment of counsel or who is now indigent and who has been identified, including by the United States Sentencing Commission, the U.S. Probation Office for the Western District of Louisiana or the Office of the Federal Public Defender, as possibly qualifying for federal habeas relief under either 28 U.S.C. § 2255 or 28 U.S.C. § 2241, in light of Johnson v. United States, __ U.S. __, 135 S.Ct. 2551 (June 26, 2015), which was made retroactive by the United States Supreme Court in Welch v. United States, __ U.S. __, No. 15-6418 (April 18, 2016). If at any point the Office of the Federal Public Defender concludes that a defendant does not qualify for relief under Johnson, it can seek to withdraw from the representation, including after the filing of a request for federal habeas corpus relief on behalf of the defendant. Should the Office of the Federal Public Defender determine that there is a conflict with regard to its representation of a particular defendant, a Criminal Justice Act panel attorney will be appointed as counsel.

The U.S. Probation Office for the Western District of Louisiana and the United States District Court Clerk's Office for the Western District of Louisiana are authorized to disclose

Presentence Investigation Reports, Statements of Reasons, and Judgments to the Federal Public Defender's Office for the purpose of determining who may be eligible for relief under Johnson.

In addition, the Court will ensure that the Federal Public Defender is notified of all pending pro se motions and petitions seeking relief under Johnson, as well as any new petition or writ of habeas corpus involving a claim under Johnson is filed by an inmate pro se, in order that the Federal Public Defender can assume representation in a timely fashion where appropriate.

In the event that the sentencing judge in the original proceeding is no longer a member of the Bench of this District and the case has not been previously reassigned, the case shall be reassigned pursuant to this Court's Standing Order 1.62.

ALEXANDRIA, LOUISIANA, this 25th day of May, 2016.
